

THE GEORGIA BOY CHOIR FESTIVAL

On February 23 and 24, 2017 the Georgia Boy Choir hosted the Ninth Annual Georgia Boy Choir Festival and Grand Finale Concert at Peachtree Road United Methodist Church in Atlanta.

Mr. Morris Rehearsing the Chorus

The Festival drew more than 250 young men from across the United States together for a day and a half of music making, allowing them the opportunity to strengthen their skills, celebrate their art, and deepen their sense of community. As usual the Allegro Group of the Newark Boys Chorus School stole the show. Not only was their singing excellent but also their comportment, maturity and respectful behavior became the standard for all the boys at the festival. Congratulations to Mr. Morris and the entire Chorus
